PREFACE PRÉFACE

1. This glossary is compiled by the direction of the Military Committee and with the approval of the NATO Council.

Its purpose is to standardize (i) general terminology with a specific military meaning; (ii) specialist terminology that needs to be widely understood throughout NATO, as well as (iii) terms that are not adequately defined in the NATO Terminology Programme (NTP)'s reference dictionaries¹, thus promoting mutual understanding and strengthening the Alliance's defence capabilities.

The definitions contained herein do not establish or modify NATO policy and doctrine, but help to express them more clearly.

2. The glossary is available in electronic form in the two official languages of NATO, English and French. These versions are updated and made available annually through the Internet (<http://www.nato.int/docu/stanag/aap006/aap6.htm>) and the intranet (MINERVA and CRONOS): NATO HQ Sites>NSA>Standardization>Policy & Coord>Terminology>AAP-6

3. In accordance with STANAG 3680 and C-M (2005)0023, Directive on the NATO Terminology Programme, the terms and definitions contained herein have been approved by all NATO nations.

4. The glossary is divided into four main parts:

Part 1. Organization and Procedures.

Part 2. NATO Agreed terms and definitions of military significance in English. The corresponding French preferred terms are shown immediately following the English

1. Le présent glossaire est constitué sur les instructions du Comité militaire et avec l'approbation du Conseil de l'Atlantique Nord.

Il a pour but de normaliser (i) la terminologie d'ordre général utilisée avec un sens militaire spécifique, (ii) la terminologie spécialisée dont la compréhension doit être facile dans tout l'OTAN et (iii) les termes insuffisamment définis dans les dictionnaires de référence¹ du Programme OTAN de terminologie (NTP) ; il vise ainsi à favoriser la compréhension mutuelle tout en renforçant les capacités de défense de l'Alliance.

Les définitions qui figurent dans le présent glossaire n'établissent ni ne modifient les politiques et doctrines de l'OTAN, mais elles permettent de les exprimer plus clairement.

2. Le glossaire est disponible en version électronique dans les deux langues officielles de l'OTAN, en anglais et en français. Ces versions sont mises à jour et publiées chaque année sur l'Internet (<http://www.nato.int/docu/stanag/aap006/aap6.htm>) et sur l'Intranet (MINERVA et CRONOS) : NATO HQ Sites>NSA>Standardization>Policy & Coord>Terminology>AAP-6.

3. Conformément au STANAG 3680 et au C-M(2005)0023, intitulé Directive sur le Programme OTAN de terminologie, les termes et définitions figurant dans la présente publication ont été approuvés par tous les pays de l'OTAN.

4. Le glossaire est divisé en grandes parties :

1^{re} Partie. Organisation et procédures

2^e Partie. Termes et définitions d'importance militaire agréés OTAN en anglais. Les termes français privilégiés correspondants sont indiqués entry term e.g., nominal weapon / arme de puissance nominale.

Part 3. NATO Agreed terms and definitions of military significance in French. The corresponding English preferred terms are shown immediately following the French entry term e.g. arme de puissance nominale / nominal weapon

Part 4. List of Abbreviations

5. After the introduction of abbreviations in AAP-6(2008) to comply with the layout for NATO glossaries prescribed by C-M(2007)0023, Guidance for the Development and Publication of NATO Terminology, the Office of NATO Terminology Coordination (ONTC), which is responsible for issuing AAP-6, decided to change the abbreviations list to a unilingual format (with some exceptions) in the 2009 edition of AAP-6. Upon reflection, the ONTC considered that the bilingual presentation prescribed by the Guidance led to confusion in a number of cases. As a result, the second edition of the Guidance will be adapted accordingly.

After having looked up the term corresponding to an abbreviation, users of this NATO glossary may look up further information, including the translation of the term in the other language, in the full entries listed in Parts 2 and 3.

6. The ONTC would also like to take this opportunity to publicly thank the Canadian Department of National Defence, for having taken the trouble to submit several dozen proposals for editorial changes. The introduction of these changes has enhanced the coherence between the various entries in this glossary.

immédiatement après l'entrée anglaise, par exemple nominal weapon / arme de puissance nominale.

3^e Partie. Termes et définitions d'importance militaire agréés OTAN en français . Les termes anglais privilégiés correspondants sont indiqués immédiatement après l'entrée française, par exemple arme de puissance nominale / nominal weapon.

4^e Partie. Liste d'abréviations

5. À la suite de l'introduction d'abréviations dans l'AAP-6(2008) pour satisfaire à la présentation des glossaires OTAN prescrite par le C-M(2007)0023, Guide pour l'élaboration et la publication de la terminologie de l'OTAN, le Bureau de coordination de la terminologie OTAN, qui est responsable de la diffusion de l'AAP-6, a décidé de modifier la liste d'abréviations, désormais unilingue (à quelques exceptions près) dans l'édition 2009 de l'AAP-6. Réflexion faite, l'ONTC a estimé que la présentation bilingue prescrite par le Guide était sujette à confusion dans un certain nombre de cas. La deuxième édition du Guide sera, dès lors, adaptée en conséquence.

Après avoir recherché le terme correspondant à une abréviation, les utilisateurs du présent glossaire OTAN pourront consulter les articles complets figurant dans les 2^e et 3^e parties pour obtenir de plus amples informations, notamment, pour connaître la traduction du terme dans l'autre langue.

6. L'ONTC souhaiterait également saisir cette occasion pour remercier publiquement le Ministère de la Défense nationale du Canada pour avoir pris la peine de soumettre plusieurs douzaines de propositions de modifications d'ordre rédactionnel. L'introduction de ces modifications a permis une meilleure harmonisation des divers articles figurant dans le glossaire.

7. Proposals for new terms and definitions or changes to or deletion of existing terms and definitions are to be made in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 1 and using the terminology tracking form at Annex A to Part 1.

7. Les propositions visant à insérer de nouveaux termes et définitions ou à modifier ou supprimer des termes et définitions existants doivent être formulées conformément au chapitre 3 de la 1^{re} Partie, à l'aide de la fiche de suivi terminologique figurant à l'Annexe A à la 1^{re} Partie.

PART 1ORGANIZATION AND PROCEDURESChapter 1*ORGANIZATION RESPONSIBLE FOR THE DEVELOPMENT AND MAINTENANCE OF AAP-6, NATO GLOSSARY OF TERMS AND DEFINITIONS (ENGLISH AND FRENCH)SECTION I - INTRODUCTIONGENERAL

1. The Military Committee Terminology Standardization Programme (MCTSP) was originally established as the NATO Military Terminology Standardization Programme by the NATO Standing Group in February 1954 which:
 - a. assigned responsibility for the coordination of NATO military terminology to the Military Agency for Standardization (MAS) (predecessor of the NATO Standardization Agency (NSA));
 - b. outlined the initial steps for processing terminology;
 - c. provided general terms of reference (TOR).

The TOR have been periodically changed and updated to provide for the participation of all NATO nations. In 1970 the Air Board, MAS, promulgated NATO Standardization Agreement (STANAG) 3680 - NATO Glossary of Military Terms and Definitions (English and French) (AAP-6) to assist Service Boards, working groups and panels of experts in considering terminology within their purview.

The object of STANAG 3680 as stated in its 5th Edition (Amendment 1) "is to register national acceptance of Allied Administrative Publication No 6 (AAP-6)". The details of the agreement state that "participating nations agree to use AAP-6 and any subsequent changes published periodically as the primary glossary for NATO terms of military significance and their definitions".

In 2004, the Military Committee (MC) formalized the name change of the NATO Terminology Conference to Military Committee Terminology Conference (MCTC). The NATO Military Terminology Standardization Programme was also renamed MCTSP. The MCTC received tasking authority from the MC to standardize terminology under the purview of the MC.

REGULATIONS

2. The following is a list of regulations that govern the MCTSP:
 - a. MC 20/10, Military Committee (MC) Policy on Standardization 27 May 2004
 - b. C-M(2003)37-AS1, NATO Policy for Standardization of Terminology 22 May 2003
 - c. C-M(2005)0023, Directive on the NATO Terminology Programme 14 April 2005
 - d. STANAG 3680 Agreement of NATO nations to use AAP-6 (Edition 5, Amendment 1)

- e. NATO Standardization Chapter 1 - outlines the responsibilities of the Agency Procedures NATO Terminology Coordinator (TC) and the (NSAP) Service Boards towards the Terminology (September 2005) Standardization Programme.
- f. Guidance for the Development and Publication of NATO Terminology.

SECTION II - POLICY

OBJECT

- 1. The MCTSP is defined as that part of the NATO Terminology Programme through which standardized terminology under the purview of the MC is developed, coordinated, agreed, managed, documented and distributed.
- 2. The purpose of the MCTSP is to promote mutual understanding throughout NATO by the:
 - a. publication in the two official NATO languages of a glossary of NATO Agreed terms of military significance and their definitions entitled "NATO Glossary of Terms and Definitions (English and French)" (AAP-6);
 - b. regular updating of AAP-6 as a NATO Allied publication.

CRITERIA FOR INCLUSION OF ENTRIES IN AAP-6

- 3. The criteria are:
 - a. Entries published in the "glossary" parts of AAP-6 are to be of a general application for NATO.
 - b. Specialized entries of narrow application or terms already adequately defined in English in The Concise Oxford English Dictionary (COED) and in French in Le Petit Robert de la langue française (le Petit Robert) will not normally be considered for inclusion in AAP-6.
 - c. Whenever appropriate, entries will be taken directly from publications of recognized international standardization bodies (e.g. ISO, IEC, ITU, etc.) and will be adapted in accordance with the Guidance for the Development and Publication of NATO Terminology and the lexicographic conventions of AAP-6. The source field will contain the publication number and date of such terms and definitions. For example, a definition taken from ISO could be identified by "[ISO 1087-2: 2002]" where "ISO 1087-2" is the source and "2002" the year of publication. If required, a request will be made to the appropriate organizations by the Chairman of the MCTC for permission to incorporate their terminology in AAP-6.
 - d. Only those entries which have been agreed by consensus of all NATO member nations through the Military Committee Terminology Conference, in both English and French, and have been coordinated through the Office of NATO Terminology Coordination (ONTC) will be considered "NATO AGREED" and published in AAP-6.
 - e. Entries for inclusion in AAP-6 shall not be classified, given that AAP-6 is made available to the public through the Internet.

Chapter 2

CHANGE PROCEDURES

PROPOSERS

1. Proposals for additions to, changes in and deletions of entries in AAP-6 may be submitted by:
 - a. A NATO member nation, a NATO tasking authority (TA) or one of its bodies, a strategic command (SC), a NATO agency or NATO staff.
 - b. An organization within NATO Commands, but the proposal must be coordinated through the appropriate SC.

SUBMISSION OF A PROPOSAL

2. All proposals are to be submitted in English and/or in French to the ONTC in the format prescribed at Annex A to Part 1.

MANAGEMENT OF A PROPOSAL

3. On receipt of a proposal, the Chairman of the MCTC first ensures that it meets the basic criteria for inclusion in AAP-6 and that there is no conflict with other definitions. Where problems exist with the proposal, the Chairman of the MCTC returns the proposal to the proposer with the necessary explanations. If and when the proposal meets the basic criteria and there is no conflict with other definitions, the Chairman of the MCTC harmonizes the English and French terms and definitions of the proposal and submits the proposal under a silence procedure to all NATO member nations for approval and to the SCs for comments. Only with the consensus of all NATO member nations and after coordination with and through the ONTC is the proposal considered "NATO AGREED".
4. If a NATO member nation breaks silence on the proposal, the Chairman of the MCTC further staffs the proposal until consensus is achieved. If consensus still cannot be achieved, the proposal is placed on the agenda of the next MCTC meeting for resolution.
5. Terms and definitions of proposals agreed at MCTC meetings by NATO member nations will be promulgated as "NATO AGREED" if no break of silence is received by the Chairman of the MCTC within 60 days after the distribution of the meeting decision sheet. Comments received by the Chairman of the MCTC from the SCs and other NATO bodies during the 60-day grace period will be forwarded to all NATO member nations for consideration.
6. If a proposal is rejected by a NATO member nation and a compromise by correspondence is unlikely, the proposal is placed automatically on the agenda of the next MCTC meeting. If resolution cannot be achieved at the MCTC meeting, the proposal is rejected and placed on a "Rejection / Withdrawal List".

COORDINATION

7. The Chairman of the MCTC is responsible for the general coordination of the proposals. He will provide a status report on a proposal in the MCTSP to the proposer, or whenever requested by a nation or SC. At any time, proposers can withdraw their proposals. In this case the Chairman of the MCTC prepares a "Rejection / Withdrawal List" accordingly and distributes it to the MCTC for information.

TIME LIMIT ON THE STAFFING OF A PROPOSAL

8. A proposal that is more than three years old and for which no resolution is in sight will be submitted to the next appropriate MCTC meeting for decision. The MCTC will either reject the proposal or agree to extend the staffing for a given period. If the proposal does not reach agreement within that additional given period, it will be automatically rejected and placed on a "Rejection / Withdrawal List".

MCTC MEETINGS

9. The MCTC holds two meetings a year, normally six months apart. The Chairman of the MCTC prepares MCTC meeting convening orders including their meeting agenda and supporting documents, and distributes them to all NATO member nations and SCs 90 days prior to MCTC meetings. Updated convening orders including the comments of NATO member nations and SCs on agenda items are distributed 14 days prior to MCTC meetings.

10. MCTC meetings are organized alternately by the NSA and Allied Command Transformation (ACT), or one of the member nations. MCTC meetings are conducted alternately in one of the two official NATO languages, although discussions may be in either language as required. Simultaneous interpretation is available at each MCTC meeting.

11. The MCTC may hold special meetings when required. An MCTC special meeting convening order will be published at least 30 days in advance of a special meeting. MCTC special meetings are normally conducted at NATO HQ in one of the two official NATO languages. Simultaneous interpretation may not be available at each MCTC special meeting.

Chapter 3

USER GUIDE

GENERAL

1. English conventions used when developing terms and definitions are laid down in the Guidance for the Development and Publication of NATO Terminology (hereinafter called the Guidance). The purpose of this section is to summarize these English conventions for easy reference by users of AAP-6. The French conventions are laid down in the Guide pour l'élaboration et la publication de la terminologie de l'OTAN, a summary of which can be found under the same chapter in the French version of the present document. Proposals shall conform to the grammatical rules of the language in which they are written.

REFERENCE SOURCES

2. a. Dictionaries (C-M(2003)37-AS1 dated 22 May 2003)
 - (1) The latest edition of The Concise Oxford English Dictionary (COED) is the authorized reference source for the English language in NATO.
 - (2) The latest edition of Le Petit Robert de la langue française (Le Petit Robert) is the authorized reference source for the French language in NATO.
- b. Other references. When these dictionaries do not suffice, other references may be used.

TERMINOLOGICAL ENTRIES IN AAP-6

3. a. Structure of the glossary
This glossary is presented with an entry for each term, in the English alphabetical order in Part 2, and in the French alphabetical order in Part 3.
- b. Uninotional entry
Each concept (also known as the notion) is listed in a separate entry giving its designation(s), definition and any metadata and is therefore said to be “uninotional”.
- c. Organization of an entry
Each entry in Part 2 contains first the preferred term in English followed by a slash and the equivalent term in French on the same line, followed on the lines below by any synonyms and abbreviations, the definition, notes, examples, cross-references to related terms and figures, the source and the date on which the entry became NATO Agreed, i.e.:

GUIDELINES FOR THE PREPARATION OF TERMINOLOGY PROPOSALS (PL)

4. Thorough research and documentation by the proposer in the preparation of a proposal will enhance the probability of its approval. It will also facilitate its study by the personnel involved in the approval process, thereby expediting that process. The suggestions that follow will help originators to better prepare their terminology proposals:

- a. Check with the ONTC to ensure that the subject matter is not already being addressed through another proposal.
- b. Search the NATO Terminology Database for related terms or definitions to ensure that no duplication, contradiction or other anomaly will result after the approval of the proposal. The proposal should also indicate the impact that the approval may have on existing AAP-6 entries.
- c. Search other NATO publications to ensure that the proposed definition is consistent with authoritative publications, e.g. ATPs, STANAGs.
- d. If possible, ensure the proposal is not at variance with terms and definitions adopted and published by international organizations. If differences are inevitable, specify the reasons.
- e. Ensure proposed definitions are written clearly and concisely.
- f. When preparing a definition for a term, if a definition is already available, it should be retained unless it is ungrammatical, difficult to understand or too technical.
- g. Use existing AAP-6 terms, English and French, in proposed definitions when applicable or when translating into the other language.
- h. Provide a comprehensive justification clearly stating why the proposal should be adopted and provide all relevant references to support it.
- i. Ensure that the proposal is agreed by all Services and relevant defence echelons in the case of a national proposal or a coordinated staff position when proposed by an agency or command.
- j. A proposed term should be in the singular unless the term is normally used in the plural. This is necessary to ensure it is entered in the Glossary in correct alphabetical order, particularly when the term consists of more than one word.
- k. Ensure that every definition which is proposed is written in accordance with chapter 3 of the Guidance and in particular that it:
 - (1) is suitably qualified when the corresponding term is or may be used to designate a different concept.
 - (2) correctly relates to its corresponding term, i.e., define a noun as a noun, an adjective as an adjective and a verb as a verb;
 - (3) contains cross-references to other AAP-6 entries when applicable;
 - (4) does not contain abbreviations or acronyms, unless they are listed as words in the COED or Le Petit Robert;

- (5) does not constitute an official statement of doctrine or procedure although it is to be expected that a definition will reflect established doctrine or procedure; and
- (6) does not contain examples unless considered essential for clarity.

CONVENTIONS (English)

5. a. Cross-references

- (1) Preferred term(s) - is used after an undefined term to refer the user to the synonym that is considered to be the best to use e.g., "materiel control - Preferred term: inventory control".
- (2) Related term(s) - is used after a definition to draw attention to terms of the same family e.g., "inventory control / gestion et administration du matériel - That phase of military logistics... Related term: stock control".

However, the related terms listed need not necessarily constitute an exhaustive list.

- (3) The following acceptability ratings of synonyms of the preferred term will be introduced for new entries, and for existing entries that are changed:

- (admitted) - is used for a synonymous term that is also acceptable;
- (deprecated) - is used for a term which may be in use but is considered to be unsuitable, for example it is misleading or incomplete;
- (obsolete) - if appropriate, list as "obsolete" a term which is no longer in use either because it has been replaced by another term, or because the concept it refers to is no longer in use, but which still appears in the glossary.

All cross-references are listed in alphabetical order in the original language, separated by semi-colons and printed in italics.

b. Qualifiers

A qualifier is not permitted in an AAP-6 term.

Qualifiers may be used at the beginning of a definition. (MAS(TC)86-NATO/1 - 1983 dated 20 July 1983 and the Guidance, paragraph 19.4.b). Example:

Entry with incorrect qualifier:

pass time (road) / durée d'écoulement

The time that...

Entry with correct qualifier:

pass time / durée d'écoulement

In road transport, the time that...

c. Comma

- (1) A comma is used to separate the qualifier at the beginning of a definition from the definition proper or a clause or phrase which is parenthetical. Examples:

- (a) "In intelligence usage, a step in the processing phase of the intelligence cycle in which information is subjected to review in order to identify significant facts for subsequent interpretation."
- (b) "An area, usually in the theatre of operations, where troops are assembled before beginning active operations."
- (2) A comma is used to separate items in a series but generally speaking commas are not placed before the conjunctions "and", "or". Examples:
- (a) "A defined area on an aerodrome, intended for parking, loading, unloading and/or servicing of aircraft."
- (b) "The area of concern to a commander relative to the objectives of current or planned operations, including his areas of influence, operations and/or responsibility, and areas adjacent thereto."
- (3) Coordinate (equal-rank) adjectives modifying the same noun are separated by a comma. (If the word "and" can be placed between the adjectives without altering the meaning of the sentence, they are considered to be coordinate). Example:
- "Vigorous, aggressive troops are needed for the exploitation of enemy weakness in this area."
- d. Verbs. A verb shall be defined as a verb. When defining a term which is a verb or a verbal phrase, the definition should normally begin with an infinitive preceded by the particle "to".
- e. Hyphenation. Use the forms given in the COED for individual words or expressions. Note that recent editions of the COED have removed the hyphen previously found in many compound words or between prefixes and roots of words. When the COED lists two forms: one with, one without a hyphen, use the unhyphenated form. Some words must nevertheless be hyphenated, for example for phonological reasons or to distinguish them from other words. Compound words not shown in the COED are those of recent use, specialist terms or temporarily agglomerated words. In this case the rule of thumb suggests that hyphens are necessary if and when confusion is to be avoided. See the introduction to the COED for more detailed explanations regarding hyphenation.
- f. Use of pronouns "that" and "which". When developing a definition containing these relative pronouns there is no specific rule. However, as a guide, the pronoun "that" should be used to restrict or define a clause and "which" for non-defining clauses when developing definitions in English for AAP-6. (MAS(TC)143-UK 27 August 1984).
- g. Use of and/or. In English, the conjunction "and" is used to indicate that both or all of the items listed are included. The conjunction "or" is used when only one of the items listed is concerned. To avoid ambiguity, the expression "and/or" will be used to show that one or more items in a list may be concerned.
- h. Use of numerals. Single-figure numbers should be written in letters. In other cases, numerals are to be used.

- i. Metric system. Measurements are normally given using metric (Système international) units. If necessary, show measurements in the English system in brackets after metric ones.
- j. Quotation marks. The rule is to follow the COED.
- k. Repetition. The term should not be included in the definition, as a term cannot be defined by itself. However, the use of a generic concept is permitted when a definition is based on this concept, e.g. "standing order - A promulgated order which remains in force until amended or cancelled". The repetition of a word in a definition should be avoided as far as possible.
- l. Capitalization. There is a tendency to make excessive use of capitals in English. As a general rule, capitals are to be avoided except where required by the grammar of the language, e.g. for proper nouns, nationalities or for official titles, e.g. North Atlantic Treaty Organization. See also Appendix 1 to Annex D to the Guidance.
- m. Notes. To avoid including unnecessary detail or extraneous elements in a definition, such indications may be shown after it, when required, preceded by the word "Note:". For example:

image map / iconocarte

In photogrammetry, a map made from an image or image mosaic, usually overlaid with a grid or graticule, and cartographically enhanced to aid interpretation.

Note: it may be in hard or soft copy format and be capable of substituting a conventional map product.

Related terms: graticule^{1,2}; military grid; mosaic; photomap.

14 Oct 2002

- n. Mathematical symbols. Mathematical symbols shall not be used in place of lexical expressions, e.g. "=" instead of "is the same as" or "+" instead of "plus" or "more".

1^{re} PARTIEORGANISATION ET PROCÉDURESChapitre 1*ORGANISATION CHARGÉE DE L'ÉLABORATION ET DE LA MISE À JOUR DE L'AAP-6,
GLOSSAIRE OTAN DE TERMES ET DÉFINITIONS (ANGLAIS ET FRANÇAIS)SECTION I - INTRODUCTIONGÉNÉRALITÉS

1. Le Programme de normalisation de la terminologie du Comité militaire (MCTSP) était à l'origine le Programme de normalisation de la terminologie militaire de l'OTAN établi par le Groupe permanent de l'OTAN en février 1954, qui :

- a. attribuait la responsabilité de la coordination de la terminologie militaire de l'OTAN au Bureau militaire de standardisation (BMS) (le prédécesseur de l'Agence OTAN de normalisation (AON)) ;
- b. précisait les étapes préliminaires du traitement de la terminologie ;
- c. définissait un mandat général.

Ce mandat a été périodiquement modifié et mis à jour pour permettre la participation de tous les pays de l'OTAN. En 1970, le Bureau Air du BMS a promulgué l'Accord de normalisation OTAN (STANAG) 3680 - Glossaire OTAN de termes et définitions à usage militaire (anglais et français) (AAP-6), afin d'aider les Bureaux d'armée, groupes de travail et commissions d'experts à tenir compte de la terminologie dans leurs domaines de compétence.

Tel que décrit dans sa 5^e édition (Amendement 1), le STANAG 3680 a pour but d'enregistrer l'engagement des pays à utiliser l'AAP-6. Les modalités de l'accord stipulent que "les pays participants sont convenus d'utiliser l'AAP-6, y compris ses corrections ultérieures, comme principal glossaire OTAN de termes d'importance militaire et leurs définitions".

En 2004, le Comité militaire a officialisé le changement de nom de la Conférence de terminologie de l'OTAN qui est devenue la Conférence de terminologie du Comité militaire (MCTC). Le Programme de normalisation de la terminologie de l'OTAN fut également rebaptisé le MCTSP et la MCTC fut habilitée par le Comité militaire à normaliser la terminologie relevant de son domaine de compétence.

DIRECTIVES

2. On trouvera ci-après la liste des directives qui régissent le MCTSP :
- a. MC 20/10, 27 mai 2004 Politique du Comité militaire en matière de normalisation
 - b. C-M(2003)37-AS1,

- f. Guide pour l'élaboration et la publication de la terminologie de l'OTAN

SECTION II - POLITIQUE

BUT

1. Le MCTSP est défini comme étant la partie du Programme OTAN de terminologie par laquelle la terminologie normalisée relevant du Comité militaire est élaborée, coordonnée, approuvée, traitée, documentée et diffusée.
2. Le MCTSP a pour but de promouvoir la compréhension mutuelle au sein de l'OTAN par :
 - a. la publication dans les deux langues officielles de l'OTAN d'un glossaire de termes et définitions d'importance militaire agréés OTAN, intitulé « Glossaire OTAN de termes et définitions (anglais et français) (AAP-6) » ;
 - b. la mise à jour régulière de l'AAP-6, qui est une publication interalliée de l'OTAN.

CRITÈRES D'INCLUSION DES ARTICLES DANS L'AAP-6

3. Les critères sont :
 - a. Les articles publiés dans les parties « glossaire » de l'AAP-6 doivent être d'application générale pour l'OTAN.
 - b. Les articles techniques d'application restreinte ou les termes définis de façon satisfaisante en anglais dans The Concise Oxford English Dictionary (COED) et, en français, dans le Petit Robert de la langue française (le Petit Robert) ne seront généralement pas inclus dans l'AAP-6.
 - c. Dans la mesure où cela se justifie, les articles seront directement extraits de publications d'organismes de normalisation internationaux reconnus (par exemple l'ISO, la CEI, l'UIT, etc.) et seront adaptés conformément au Guide pour l'élaboration et la publication de la terminologie de l'OTAN et aux conventions lexicographiques applicables de l'AAP-6. Le champ source indiquera le numéro et la date de la publication dont seront repris ces termes et définitions. Par exemple, une définition empruntée à l'ISO pourrait être identifiée comme suit : « [ISO 1087-2(2002)] », « ISO 1087-2 » étant la source et « 2002 » l'année de publication. Si nécessaire, le président de la MCTC demandera aux organismes compétents l'autorisation d'incorporer leur terminologie dans l'AAP-6.
 - d. Seuls les articles approuvés à l'unanimité par tous les pays membres de l'OTAN, en français et en anglais, dans le cadre de la Conférence de terminologie du Comité militaire et coordonnés par l'intermédiaire du Bureau de coordination de la terminologie OTAN (ONTC) seront considérés comme « AGRÉÉS OTAN » et publiés dans l'AAP-6.
 - e. Les articles dont l'inclusion dans l'AAP-6 est envisagée ne feront l'objet d'aucune classification, l'AAP-6 étant accessible au public sur l'Internet.

Chapitre 2

PROCÉDURES DE MISE À JOUR

AUTEURS

1. Les propositions d'ajouts d'articles à l'AAP-6 ou de modifications ou suppressions d'articles figurant dans la présente publication peuvent être soumises par :
 - a. un pays membre de l'OTAN, une autorité responsable (TA) de l'OTAN ou un de ses organes, un commandement stratégique (SC), une agence OTAN ou un état-major de l'OTAN ;
 - b. une organisation au sein des commandements de l'OTAN, mais les propositions doivent alors être coordonnées par le SC compétent.

SOUSSION D'UNE PROPOSITION

2. Toutes les propositions doivent être soumises à l'ONTC en anglais ou en français, ou dans ces deux langues, selon le modèle prescrit à l'Annexe A de la 1^{re} Partie.

GESTION D'UNE PROPOSITION

3. Lorsqu'il reçoit une proposition, le président de la MCTC s'assure en premier lieu qu'elle répond aux critères de base régissant son inclusion dans l'AAP-6 et qu'elle ne va pas à l'encontre d'autres définitions. En cas de problèmes, le président de la MCTC renvoie la proposition à son auteur avec les explications nécessaires. Si la proposition répond aux critères de base et qu'elle ne va pas à l'encontre d'autres définitions, le président de la MCTC harmonise les termes anglais et français proposés ainsi que leurs définitions et soumet la proposition suivant une procédure d'accord tacite à tous les pays membres de l'OTAN pour approbation et aux SC pour commentaires. Ce n'est qu'avec l'accord unanime de tous les pays membres de l'OTAN et après coordination avec et par l'intermédiaire de l'ONTC que la proposition est déclarée « AGRÉÉE OTAN ».
4. Si un pays membre de l'OTAN interrompt la procédure d'accord tacite relative à la proposition, le président de la MCTC étudie cette proposition jusqu'à l'obtention du consensus. Si celui-ci ne peut toujours pas être obtenu, la proposition est inscrite à l'ordre du jour de la réunion suivante de la MCTC pour qu'une solution puisse être trouvée.
5. Les termes et définitions de propositions approuvées par les pays membres de l'OTAN aux réunions de la MCTC seront promulgués « AGRÉÉS OTAN », si aucune interruption de la procédure d'accord tacite n'est signalée au président de la MCTC dans un délai de 60 jours à compter de la diffusion du compte rendu de décisions de la réunion. Les commentaires que le président de la MCTC reçoit des SC et autres organismes de l'OTAN au cours du délai de grâce de 60 jours seront transmis à tous les pays membres de l'OTAN pour examen.
6. Si une proposition est rejetée par un pays membre de l'OTAN et qu'un compromis par correspondance paraisse peu probable, la proposition est inscrite automatiquement à l'ordre du jour de la réunion suivante de la MCTC. En l'absence de solution à la réunion en question, la proposition est rejetée et placée sur une « liste des propositions rejetées / retirées ».

COORDINATION

7. Le président de la MCTC est responsable de la coordination générale des propositions. Il fournit un rapport de situation aux auteurs visant à les informer de l'évolution de leurs propositions dans le cadre du MCTSP, ou bien aux pays ou SC chaque fois qu'ils en font la demande. Les auteurs peuvent retirer leurs propositions à tout moment. Dans ce cas, le président de la MCTC prépare une « liste des propositions rejetées / retirées » qu'il communique à la MCTC pour information.

DÉLAI D'ÉTUDE D'UNE PROPOSITION

8. Toute proposition datant de plus de trois ans et pour laquelle aucune solution n'est en vue sera soumise pour décision à la prochaine réunion appropriée de la MCTC. Cette dernière peut alors décider soit de la rejeter, soit de prolonger son étude pour une durée donnée. En l'absence d'accord au cours de ce délai supplémentaire, la proposition est automatiquement rejetée et placée sur une « liste des propositions rejetées / retirées ».

RÉUNIONS DE LA MCTC

9. La MCTC tient deux réunions par an, normalement à intervalles de six mois. Le président de la MCTC prépare les avis de convocation, qui comprennent l'ordre du jour de la réunion et les documents d'information complémentaires, et il les envoie à tous les pays membres de l'OTAN et aux SC 90 jours avant lesdites réunions. Les convocations mises à jour, qui tiennent compte des commentaires des pays membres de l'OTAN et des SC sur des points de l'ordre du jour, sont communiquées 14 jours avant les réunions.

10. Les réunions de la MCTC sont organisées à tour de rôle par l'AON et le Commandement allié Transformation (ACT) ou l'un des pays membres. Elles sont menées tour à tour dans l'une des deux langues officielles de l'OTAN, bien que les débats puissent être tenus dans l'une ou l'autre de ces deux langues, si nécessaire. Des services d'interprétation simultanée sont fournis à chaque réunion.

11. La MCTC peut tenir des réunions spéciales si nécessaire. Un avis de convocation à une réunion spéciale de la MCTC sera publié au moins 30 jours avant ladite réunion. Ces réunions spéciales ont normalement lieu au siège de l'OTAN dans l'une des deux langues officielles de l'Organisation. Des services d'interprétation simultanée peuvent ne pas être fournis à chaque réunion spéciale de la MCTC.

GUIDE D'UTILISATION

GÉNÉRALITÉS

1. Les conventions françaises suivies pour l'élaboration de termes et définitions sont énoncées dans le Guide pour l'élaboration et la publication de la terminologie de l'OTAN (ci-après dénommé le Guide). La présente section a pour but de les résumer en vue de rendre la consultation de l'AAP-6 plus aisée pour ses utilisateurs. Les conventions anglaises figurent dans le Guidance for the Development and Publication of NATO Terminology, dont le lecteur trouvera un résumé dans le chapitre correspondant de la version anglaise du présent document. Les propositions doivent être conformes aux règles grammaticales de la langue dans laquelle elles sont rédigées.

DIRECTIVES POUR L'ÉLABORATION DES PROPOSITIONS DE TERMINOLOGIE (PL)

4. Une recherche et une documentation approfondies de la part de l'auteur lorsqu'il élabore une proposition de terminologie augmenteront les chances de cette dernière d'être approuvée. Cela facilitera également son étude par les personnes qui participent au processus d'approbation et, par conséquent, accélèrera ce processus. Les suggestions qui suivent aideront les auteurs à mieux préparer leurs propositions :

- a. Vérifier auprès de l'ONTC que la question ne fait pas déjà l'objet d'un examen dans le cadre d'une autre proposition.
- b. Vérifier que l'adoption de la proposition n'entraînera pas de doubles emplois, de contradictions ou d'autres anomalies par rapport à des termes de la même famille déjà définis dans la base de données terminologique de l'OTAN. La proposition devrait également indiquer l'incidence que son adoption pourrait avoir sur les articles déjà existants de l'AAP-6.
- c. Consulter d'autres publications de l'OTAN faisant autorité (ATP et STANAG par exemple) afin de s'assurer que la définition proposée leur est conforme.
- d. Si possible, s'assurer que la proposition n'est pas en contradiction avec des termes et définitions adoptés et publiés par des organismes internationaux. Lorsqu'une telle divergence est inévitable, les raisons doivent en être précisées.
- e. S'assurer que les définitions proposées sont rédigées d'une façon claire et concise.
- f. Lors de la rédaction de la définition d'un terme, conserver la définition qui existe déjà, à moins qu'elle ne soit incorrecte du point de vue grammatical, difficile à comprendre ou trop technique.
- g. Employer les termes existants anglais et français de l'AAP-6 dans les définitions proposées, s'il y a lieu, ou lors de leur traduction dans l'autre langue.
- h. Fournir une justification détaillée et complète expliquant les raisons pour lesquelles la proposition devrait être adoptée et fournir toutes les références utiles à son appui.
- i. S'assurer que la proposition est approuvée par toutes les armées et par tous les autres organismes de défense concernés, dans le cas d'une proposition nationale, ou exprime une position commune lorsqu'elle émane d'une agence ou d'un commandement.
- j. Proposer les termes au singulier, à moins qu'ils ne soient normalement utilisés au pluriel, de manière à ce qu'ils soient inscrits dans le glossaire dans l'ordre alphabétique correct, en particulier lorsqu'ils sont composés de plusieurs mots.
- k. S'assurer que la définition proposée est rédigée conformément au chapitre 3 du Guide et, en particulier, qu'elle :
 - (1) est convenablement décrite lorsque le terme correspondant est ou peut être employé pour désigner un concept différent ;

- (2) définit correctement le terme, c'est-à-dire définition d'un nom par un nom, d'un adjectif par un adjectif et d'un verbe par un verbe ;
- (3) renvoie à d'autres articles de l'AAP-6, selon qu'il convient ;
- (4) ne contient ni abréviation ni acronyme, à moins que ceux-ci ne soient employés comme mots dans le COED ou le Petit Robert ;
- (5) ne constitue pas un énoncé officiel de doctrine ou de procédure, bien qu'il faille s'attendre à ce qu'une définition reflète la doctrine ou la procédure établies ; et
- (6) ne contient pas d'exemples, sauf s'ils sont jugés indispensables pour des raisons de clarté.

CONVENTIONS (français)

5. a. Renvois

- (1) Terme(s) privilégié(s) – Employé(s) après un terme sans définition pour renvoyer l'utilisateur à un synonyme dont l'emploi est jugé préférable, par exemple « position d'attaque. Terme privilégié : zone de démarrage ».
- (2) Terme(s) connexe(s) – Employé(s) après une définition pour attirer l'attention sur des termes de la même famille, par exemple « acquisition d'objectif / target acquisition.- Opération consistant à ... Terme connexe : analyse d'objectifs ».

Les termes connexes énumérés ne constituent cependant pas une liste exhaustive.

- (3) Les cotes d'acceptabilité suivantes des synonymes du terme privilégié seront utilisées pour les nouveaux articles ainsi que pour les articles existants auxquels des modifications sont apportées :

- | | | |
|---------------|---|--|
| (toléré) | – | synonyme dont l'emploi peut également être accepté ; |
| (déconseillé) | – | terme éventuellement utilisé, mais jugé peu approprié du fait, par exemple, qu'il prête à confusion ou est incomplet ; |
| (désuet) | – | le cas échéant, indiquer comme « désuet » un terme sorti de l'usage, soit parce qu'il a été remplacé par un autre terme, soit parce que le concept auquel il renvoie n'est plus utilisé, mais continue de figurer dans le glossaire. |

Tous les renvois sont énumérés dans l'ordre alphabétique de la langue source, séparés par un point-virgule et écrits en italique.

b. Qualifiants

Les qualifiants ne doivent pas être utilisés dans un terme de l'AAP-6.

Ils peuvent être employés au début de la définition. (MAS(TC)86-NATO/1 - 1983 du 20 juillet 1983 et Guide, paragraphe 19.4.b). Par exemple :

Article rédigé de manière incorrecte avec un qualifiant :

durée d'écoulement (circulation routière) / pass time (road)
Temps qui...

Article rédigé correctement avec un qualifiant :

durée d'écoulement / pass time

En circulation routière, temps...

- c. Verbes. Un verbe sera défini par un verbe. Si le terme défini est un verbe ou un syntagme verbal, l'infinitif sera employé de manière générale. S'il s'agit d'un verbe pronominal, le pronom sera écrit entre parenthèses après le verbe de manière à conserver l'ordre alphabétique normal.
- d. Adjectifs et participes passés. Si le terme à définir est un adjectif, un syntagme adjectival ou un participe passé, il sera présenté au masculin singulier.
- e. Mots avec traits d'union. Les formes indiquées dans le Petit Robert seront employées, sauf si les règles grammaticales du français en disposent autrement. Le trait d'union pourra être omis dans les mots composés qui ne figurent pas dans ce dictionnaire, car il s'agit d'expressions récentes, spécialisées ou temporaires, sauf lorsque cette omission peut être source d'ambiguïté ou lorsque le trait d'union doit être placé avant et après le « t » entre la troisième personne du singulier d'un verbe et un pronom pour des raisons phonétiques.
- f. Emploi des chiffres. Les nombres à un chiffre seront écrits en toutes lettres. Dans les autres cas, les chiffres seront utilisés.
- g. Système de mesure. En règle générale, les mesures sont exprimées en unités du système métrique (Système international). Si nécessaire, les mesures du système anglais seront indiquées entre parenthèses après les unités métriques.
- h. Ponctuation. La ponctuation sera marquée conformément aux règles de la langue française. Pour cela, on consultera l'édition actuelle de l'ouvrage de Grevisse, « Le Bon Usage ». Les points suivants seront cependant particulièrement gardés à l'esprit :

- . Les guillemets s'emploient, en langue française, comme suit :

- obligatoirement :

- . pour indiquer une expression, un tour ne faisant pas partie du langage ordinaire (néologismes, régionalismes, emprunts à une langue étrangère) ;

- facultativement :

- . pour indiquer une citation ;

- . parfois au lieu de l'italique pour mettre en évidence un élément d'une phrase ;

- . comme marque itérative (c'est-à-dire pour indiquer que certains des mots sont virtuellement répétés).

- . On utilisera de préférence les guillemets français (« ... ») à la place des guillemets anglais (" "). L'apostrophe simple et la minute (') peuvent être utilisées pour guillemeter une citation à l'intérieur d'une autre citation.

- . La barre oblique, dans l'AAP-6, est utilisée exclusivement pour séparer le terme anglais du terme français et vice-versa.

Une ponctuation sera utilisée uniquement pour que la définition ou la note soient le plus claires possible. Il faudra toutefois éviter d'employer les signes de ponctuation suivants : parenthèses, tirets, guillemets, deux-points et points-virgules. Voir l'Annexe E du Guide pour de plus amples détails.

- . La virgule est un signe de ponctuation faible, utilisé pour marquer une pause dans le discours sans changer d'idée. Elle précède les conjonctions de coordination, sauf les conjonctions « ou » et « et ». La virgule peut précéder « et » lorsque les éléments coordonnés sont longs ou nombreux. La virgule sera utilisée pour séparer le qualifiant, au début d'une définition, de la définition proprement dite. Elle le sera également pour séparer une proposition ou un membre de phrase qui sert de parenthèse.
- i. Temps. Dans la mesure du possible, la définition d'un terme est donnée à l'indicatif présent, sauf nécessités de concordance des temps.
- j. Emploi des articles. Conformément aux règles de lexicographie de la langue française, aucune définition ne doit débiter par un article, défini ou indéfini.
- k. Redites. Le terme ne doit pas être repris dans la définition, étant donné qu'un terme ne peut se définir par lui-même. Toutefois, l'emploi d'un concept générique est autorisé lorsque la définition repose sur ce concept, par exemple « Ordre permanent - Ordre diffusé qui demeure en vigueur jusqu'à ce qu'il ait été éventuellement modifié ou abrogé ».
- l. Et/ou. Cette double conjonction ne doit pas être employée en français, même lorsqu'elle est l'équivalent de « and/or » en anglais. L'équivalent français de « and/or » est le plus souvent « ou » ; lorsque l'on doit être plus précis, on utilise « ...ou..., ou les deux », ou « soit... soit, ou les deux ».
- m. Emploi de la majuscule. N'employez pas de majuscules, sauf lorsque la grammaire de la langue l'exige, par exemple dans les noms propres, les nationalités ou les titres officiels. Voir l'Appendice 1 à l'Annexe E du Guide pour des explications détaillées sur l'emploi de la majuscule.

Note : la majuscule initiale ne s'emploie après deux points que s'il s'agit d'une citation complète, avec ou sans guillemets ; les points de suspension sont suivis d'une majuscule s'ils terminent une phrase, car ils équivalent à un point. Ils sont suivis d'une minuscule lorsqu'utilisés à l'intérieur d'une phrase.
- n. Note, nota, nota bene. Pour indiquer une remarque supplémentaire sur le texte d'une définition, il est convenu de faire précéder celle-ci du mot « Note : ».
- o. Signes mathématiques. L'emploi de signes mathématiques à la place d'expressions lexicales doit être évité (par exemple « = » au lieu de « égal à » ; « + » au lieu de « plus » ou « davantage »).
